

Appointment of Principal
Stamford American International School
(SAIS)

is seeking to appoint an outstanding educational leader to take the school through its next stage of development as it moves onto its permanent campus. The post is advertised for August 2011 or sooner if available.

SAIS is a world-class learning institution in Singapore, currently giving children from Nursery to Grade 7 an elementary experience based on an American curriculum, which is integrated with the IB (International Baccalaureate). SAIS opened its doors for the first time in August 2009 and has grown quickly to over 260 students. In August 2012, it will move into a state-of-the-art campus with a capacity for over 2000 students, from Nursery, Elementary, Middle and High school. The successful candidate will have a significant role to play in developing the new school site and in establishing the full IB curriculum.

The successful candidate will have:

- wide experience in international education
- an in depth knowledge of the American curriculum

They will be:

- an exceptional educational leader
- passionate about the International Baccalaureate program
- commercially aware
- able to demonstrate considerable success in growing a new school
- committed to a collaborative and inclusive educational philosophy

Interested professionals should submit a current CV and a letter of application, not more than two pages of A4, outlining their educational philosophy and how their experience has prepared them for the role at SAIS.

Applications should be submitted to Heidrick & Struggles who are managing the appointment process on behalf of COGNITA Schools, and who can supply further information if required. Applications must be received by Friday, September 10th.

Further information about the school can be found on the web site at: www.sais.edu.sg
